

This Pricing Supplement (the “Pricing Supplement”) together with the short form base shelf prospectus dated June 29, 2022, as amended or supplemented (the “Prospectus”), the prospectus supplement thereto dated June 29, 2022, as amended or supplemented (the “Prospectus Supplement”) to which it relates and each document incorporated by reference into such prospectus constitutes a public offering of securities only in the jurisdictions where they may be lawfully offered for sale and therein only by persons permitted to sell such securities. No securities commission or similar regulatory authority has in any way passed upon the merits of securities offered hereunder and any representation to the contrary is an offence. The Note Securities to be issued hereunder have not been, and will not be, registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended and, subject to certain exemptions, may not be offered, sold or delivered, directly or indirectly, in the United States of America to or for the account or benefit of U.S. persons.

Pricing Supplement No. ACCI4594 dated April 24, 2024

(to the short form base shelf prospectus dated June 29, 2022, as supplemented by the Prospectus Supplement dated December 14, 2023 and by the Prospectus Supplement entitled NBC Auto Callable Contingent Income Note Securities (no direct currency exposure) Program dated June 29, 2022)

NATIONAL BANK OF CANADA

NBC Auto Callable Contingent Income Note Securities (no direct currency exposure) Program

NBC Auto Callable Contingent Income Note Securities (Maturity-Monitored Barrier) linked to a portfolio of Canadian companies, due on May 12, 2031

(non principal protected note securities)

Maximum Can$25,000,000 (250,000 Note Securities)

No minimum amount of funds must be raised under this offering. This means that the Bank could complete this offering after raising only a small proportion of the offering amount set out above.

This Pricing Supplement supplements the short form base shelf prospectus dated June 29, 2022 relating to $12,000,000,000 Medium Term Notes of the Bank, as amended or supplemented, and the Prospectus Supplement dated June 29, 2022. If the information in this Pricing Supplement differs from the information contained in the Prospectus and/or the Prospectus Supplement, you should rely on the information in this Pricing Supplement. Holders should carefully read this Pricing Supplement, the Prospectus Supplement and the accompanying Prospectus to fully understand the information relating to the terms of the Note Securities and other considerations that are important to Holders. All three documents contain information Holders should consider when making their investment decision. The information contained in this Pricing Supplement and the accompanying Prospectus and Prospectus Supplement is current only as of the date of each.

The estimated initial value of the Note Securities as of the date of this Pricing Supplement is $93.59 per $100 of Principal Amount, which is less than the issue price. The estimated initial value is equal to 93.59% of the Principal Amount, being equivalent to a $0.91 annual discount over the term of the Note Securities. The actual value of the Note Securities at any time will reflect many factors, cannot be predicted with accuracy and may be less than this amount. We describe our determination of the estimated initial value in more detail in the Prospectus. The Independent Dealer did not participate in the preparation of the estimated initial value for the Note Securities. See “Description of the Note Securities – Estimated Initial Value of Linked Note Securities” in the Prospectus.

The Note Securities differ from conventional debt and fixed income investments; repayment of the entire Principal Amount is not guaranteed. The Note Securities entail downside risk and are not designed to be alternatives to conventional debt or fixed income investments or money market instruments.

The Note Securities are non principal protected note securities and the Holder may receive an amount that is less than the Principal Amount over the term of the Note Securities. For greater certainty, throughout this Pricing Supplement, “maturity” wherever used herein, shall include Maturity Date, Call Date and Special Reimbursement Date.

The Note Securities constitute direct, unsecured and unsubordinated debt obligations of the Bank ranking pari passu with all other present and future unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness of the Bank. The Note Securities will not constitute deposits that are insured under the Canada Deposit Insurance Corporation Act or any other deposit insurance regime designed to ensure the payment of all or a portion of a deposit upon insolvency of the deposit taking institution.

Amounts paid to Holders will depend on the performance of the Reference Portfolio. None of the Bank, its affiliates, the Dealers, or any other person or entity guarantees that Holders will receive an amount equal to their original investment in the Note Securities or guarantees that any return will be paid on the Note Securities. Since the Note Securities are not protected and the Principal Amount will be at risk (other than the minimum Maturity Redemption Payment of 1% of the Principal Amount), it is possible that Holders could lose some or substantially all of their original investment in the Note Securities. See “Risk Factors” in the Prospectus Supplement and the Prospectus.

The Note Securities are redeemable automatically on a Call Date depending on the performance of the Reference Portfolio. In addition, the Note Securities may be redeemed by the Bank pursuant to a Reimbursement Under Special Circumstances. See “Description of the Note Securities – Reimbursement Under Special Circumstances and Payment” in the Prospectus.

The Note Securities are not redeemable prior to the Maturity Date except on a Call Date, and except by the Bank pursuant to a Reimbursement Under Special Circumstances. See “Description of the Note Securities – Reimbursement Under Special Circumstances and Payment” in the Prospectus. The Note Securities will not be listed on any securities exchange or quotation system. National Bank Financial Inc. intends to maintain, under normal market conditions, a daily secondary market for the Note Securities. National Bank Financial Inc. may stop maintaining a market for the Note Securities at any time without any prior notice to Holders. There can be no assurance that a secondary market will develop or, if one develops, that it will be liquid. Moreover, Holders selling their Note Securities prior to maturity may be subject to certain fees. See “Secondary Market for the Note Securities” in the Prospectus Supplement.

The Reference Asset Return for each Reference Asset is a price return, and will not take into account dividends and/or distributions paid by the issuers on account of each of the Reference Assets. As of April 15, 2024, the dividends and/or distributions paid on account of all of the Reference Assets in the Reference Portfolio represented an annual indicative yield of 6.48%, representing an aggregate yield of approximately 45.42% over the term of the Note Securities, assuming that the dividends and/or distributions remain constant and are not reinvested.

National Bank Financial Inc. is an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of the Bank. As a result, the Bank is a “related issuer” and a “connected issuer” of National Bank Financial Inc. within the meaning of the securities legislation of certain provinces and territories of Canada. See “Plan of Distribution” in the Prospectus Supplement and in the Prospectus.

Maturity Redemption Payment:

The Maturity Redemption Payment per Note Security will be as follows:

- (i) if the Reference Portfolio Return is equal to or higher than the Call Threshold on a Call Valuation Date, the Note Securities will be automatically called on the applicable Call Date and the Maturity Redemption Payment will be equal to $$100 \times [1 + \text{Variable Return}]$; or
- (ii) if the Note Securities are not automatically called and the Reference Portfolio Return is positive on the Final Valuation Date, the Maturity Redemption Payment will be equal to $$100 \times [1 + \text{Variable Return}]$; or
- (iii) if the Note Securities are not automatically called and the Reference Portfolio Return is nil or negative but equal to or higher than the Barrier on the Final Valuation Date, the Maturity Redemption Payment will be equal to $100; or
- (iv) if the Note Securities are not automatically called and the Reference Portfolio Return is negative and lower than the Barrier on the Final Valuation Date, the Maturity Redemption Payment will be equal to $$100 \times [1 + \text{Reference Portfolio Return}]$.

Except for the Coupon Payments during the term of the Note Securities, investors should understand from the foregoing that they will be entitled to a single payment under the Note Securities on either the Maturity Date or a Call Date. If the Note Securities are automatically called, the investment in the Note Securities will terminate as of the applicable Call Date and as such, Holders will receive the Maturity Redemption Payment applicable to such Call Date and not the Maturity Redemption Payment that they would have otherwise been entitled to on a subsequent Call Date or on the Maturity Date if the Note Securities had not been called.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Maturity Redemption Payment will be subject to a minimum of 1% of the Principal Amount.

In addition, in the opinion of Fasken Martineau DuMoulin LLP, counsel to the Bank, the Note Securities, if issued on the date hereof, would be, on such date, “qualified investments” under the Act for trusts governed by first home savings accounts (“FHSAs”). Even if the Note Securities may be qualified investments for a trust governed by a FHSA, if the Note Securities are “prohibited investments” (as defined in section 207.01 of the Act) for a FHSA, then the holder of the FHSA will be subject to a penalty tax as set out in the Act. The Note Securities would not be prohibited investments, if issued on the date hereof, for a FHSA provided the holder of the FHSA does not have a “significant interest” (as defined in subsection 207.01(4) of the Act) in the Bank and deals at arm’s length with the Bank for the purposes of the Act. Investors should consult their own tax advisors in this regard.

Form of the Note Securities: The Note Securities will be issued as Uncertificated Note Securities. See “Description of the Note Securities – Form, Registration and Transfer of Note Securities” in the Prospectus and “Description of the Note Securities – Form of Note Securities” in the Prospectus Supplement.

INVESTMENT STRATEGY SUPPORTING A PURCHASE OF THE NOTE SECURITIES

NBC Auto Callable Contingent Income Note Securities (Maturity-Monitored Barrier)

You should consider a purchase of the Note Securities rather than alternative investments (including a direct purchase of the Reference Assets or exposure to them) if you expect that:

- (i) the Reference Portfolio Return will be equal to or higher than the Coupon Payment Threshold on the Coupon Payment Valuation Dates; and
- (ii) the Reference Portfolio Return will be equal to or higher than the Call Threshold on at least one Call Valuation Date or positive on the Final Valuation Date; or
- (iii) if the Reference Portfolio Return is lower than the Call Threshold on every Call Valuation Date and is negative on the Final Valuation Date, the Reference Portfolio Return will be equal to or higher than the Barrier on the Final Valuation Date.

If your expectations of the Reference Portfolio Return differ from these, you should consider alternative investments rather than an investment in the Note Securities.

SUITABILITY OF THE NOTE SECURITIES FOR INVESTORS

NBC Auto Callable Contingent Income Note Securities (Maturity-Monitored Barrier)

The Note Securities are not suitable for all investors. In determining whether the Note Securities are a suitable investment for you please consider that:

- (i) the Note Securities provide no guaranteed Coupon Payments and if the Reference Portfolio Return is lower than the Coupon Payment Threshold on a Coupon Payment Valuation Date, you will receive no Coupon Payment on the related Coupon Payment Date, and you will receive no Coupon Payments over the term of the Note Securities if this occurs on all Coupon Payment Valuation Dates;
- (ii) the Note Securities provide no protection for your original principal investment and if (i) the Reference Portfolio Return is lower than the Call Threshold on every Call Valuation Date and is lower than the Barrier on the Final Valuation Date, and (ii) the sum of the resulting Maturity Redemption Payment and the aggregate Coupon Payments paid during the term of the Note Securities is less than the Principal Amount, you will receive an amount which is less than your original principal investment over the term of the Note Securities;
- (iii) you will not be entitled to any return beyond the Coupon Payments and the repayment of your original principal investment;
- (iv) your Note Securities will be redeemed automatically prior to the Maturity Date if on any Call Valuation Date the Reference Portfolio Return is equal to or higher than the Call Threshold;
- (v) your investment strategy should be consistent with the investment features of the Note Securities;
- (vi) your investment time horizon should correspond with the term of the Note Securities; and
- (vii) your investment will be subject to the risk factors summarized in the section “Risk Factors” in the Prospectus Supplement and the Prospectus.

ABOUT THE ISSUERS OF THE REFERENCE ASSETS

The issuer of each of the Reference Assets is a reporting issuer or the equivalent in Canada and is required to file periodically certain financial and other information specified by securities legislation. The information provided to or filed electronically with the securities regulatory authorities can be accessed through SEDAR+, a filing system developed for the Canadian Securities Administrators that provides access to most public securities documents and information filed by public companies and investment funds with the Canadian Securities Administrators. SEDAR+'s website is www.sedarplus.ca. See "Public Information – Equity Linked Note Securities" in the Prospectus.

This Pricing Supplement relates only to the Note Securities offered hereby and does not relate to the Reference Assets or other securities of the issuer of each of the Reference Assets. The Bank and the Dealers have not verified the accuracy or completeness of any information contained in such documents and information or determined if there has been any omission by the issuer of each of the Reference Assets to disclose any facts, information or events which may have occurred prior to or subsequent to the date as of which any information contained in such documents and information has been furnished by the issuer of each of the Reference Assets which may affect the significance or accuracy of any information contained in any such documents and information. Neither the Bank nor any Dealer makes any representation that such publicly available documents or any other publicly available information regarding the issuer of each of the Reference Assets or the Reference Assets are accurate or complete.

The issuers of the Reference Assets are not affiliates of the Bank and its affiliates. The issuers of the Reference Assets have not participated in the preparation of this Pricing Supplement, do not take any responsibility or assume any liability with respect to the accuracy or completeness of any information contained herein and make no representation regarding the advisability of purchasing the Note Securities.

The Note Securities are not in any way sponsored, endorsed, sold or promoted by the issuers of the Reference Assets. The issuers of the Reference Assets are not responsible for and have not participated in the determination of the timing, pricing or number of Note Securities to be issued. The issuers of the Reference Assets do not have any statutory liability with respect to the accuracy or completeness of any of the information contained in this Pricing Supplement and have no obligation or liability in connection with the administration, marketing or trading of the Note Securities. Investing in the Note Securities is not equivalent to investing directly in the Reference Assets. The issuance of the Note Securities is not a financing for the benefit of any of the issuers of the Reference Assets or any insiders of any of the issuers of the Reference Assets.

Prospective investors should independently investigate the issuers of the Reference Assets and decide whether an investment in the Note Securities is appropriate.

MARKETING MATERIALS

Any template version of “marketing materials” (as defined in National Instrument 41-101 – General Prospectus Requirements) filed with the securities regulatory authorities in each of the provinces and territories of Canada in connection with this offering after the date of filing hereof but prior to the termination of the distribution of the Note Securities under this Pricing Supplement (including any amendments to, or an amended version of, the marketing materials) is deemed to be incorporated by reference herein. Any such marketing materials are not part of this Pricing Supplement to the extent that the contents of the marketing materials have been modified or superseded by a statement contained in an amendment to this Pricing Supplement.

CERTAIN CANADIAN FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

All subheadings of the section “Certain Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations” of the Prospectus Supplement, shall apply unchanged, except for the subheading “Capital Gains and Losses” which shall be replaced by the below:

“Capital Gains and Losses

One-half of any capital gain realized will constitute a taxable capital gain that must be included in the Noteholder’s income. One-half of any capital loss incurred will constitute an allowable capital loss that is deductible against taxable capital gains of the Noteholder, subject to and in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

Very generally, proposals set out in the Federal Budget released on April 16, 2024 (the “2024 Budget Proposals”) would increase the portion of capital gains realized on or after June 25, 2024 (including capital gains realized indirectly through a trust or partnership) that must be included in a Noteholder’s income from one half to two thirds, to the extent that the aggregate amount of such capital gains realized by such Noteholder on or before the end of a taxation year exceeds $250,000. The 2024 Budget Proposals would also increase the portion of capital losses realized by a Noteholder on or after that date that may be deducted against taxable capital gains from one half to two thirds. The 2024 Budget Proposals do not include comprehensive rules (including draft legislation) implementing these changes and state that additional details related to the change of the capital gains inclusion rate are forthcoming. Noteholders who may be subject to the increased rate of capital gains inclusion under the 2024 Budget Proposals should consult their own tax advisors.

Capital gains realized by a Noteholder may give rise to alternative minimum tax under the Act.”

ENFORCEMENT OF JUDGMENTS AGAINST FOREIGN PERSONS

Mr. Macky Tall, a director of the Bank, resides outside of Canada and has appointed the Bank, 600 de La Gauchetière Street West, 4th Floor, Montréal, Quebec H3B 4L2, as agent for service of process.

Purchasers are advised that it may not be possible for investors to enforce judgments obtained in Canada against any person that resides outside of Canada, even if such person has appointed an agent for service of process.
